Public comment at the beginning and end of the agenda may be limited to three minutes per person at the discretion of the chairperson. Members of the public may comment on matters not appearing on this agenda or may offer comment on specific agenda items. Comments may be discussed by the Council, but no action may be taken. Written comments may be submitted in person or by email, facsimile, or mail before, during, or after the meeting.

Additional comment periods may be allowed on individual agenda items at the discretion of the chairperson. These comment periods may be limited to three minutes per person at the discretion of the chairperson. All times are approximate. The Council reserves the right to take items in a different order or to combine two or more agenda items for consideration to accomplish business in the most efficient manner.
